

PREDATORS OF THE BAY

RIVER OTTERS March 28-April 1

Check out these otterly fantastic activities in our river otter gallery. Discover how river otters rule their food web, learn how to make a watershed, and find out first-hand what it takes to be an otter.

Daily Presentations:

11:00 am	Meet Our Otters	2:15 pm	Dress like an Otter
11:15 am	Food Web 101	3:15 pm	Food Web 101
12:15 am	Wondrous Water	4:15 pm	Wondrous Water
1:15 pm	Make a Watershed	5:15 pm	Dress like an Otter
2:00 pm	Meet Our Otters

SEA STARS April 2- April 6

Speed isn't always necessary to be a top predator, particularly in tidepools. See the invincible sea star in action during tidepool feedings and join us for science experiments that show how even small changes in the ocean can have a huge effect on sea stars.

Daily Presentations:

11:00 am	Tidepool Feedings	3:15 pm	On the Edge
11:15 am	Basically Acids	3:30 pm	Tidepool Feedings
12:15 am	On the Edge	4:15 pm	Dry Ice Activitiy
1:15 pm	Dry Ice Activity	5:15 pm	Molecular Models
2:15 pm	Molecular Molecules

SHARKS April 7- April 12

Sharks command the food web in ways so intricate, we're still unlocking their superior mysteries. See our local Bay Area predators in action and find out how you can be a shark guardian.

Daily Presentations:

10:30 am	Shark Talk	2:15 pm	Jaw-some Bites
11:15 am	Jaw-some Bites	3:00 pm	Shark Talk
11:30 am	Shark Talk	3:15 pm	Tag a Shark
12:15 am	Tag a Shark	4:15 pm	Shark Eggs
1:15 pm	Shark Eggs	5:15 pm	Jaw-some Bites